1:15 Lori L Tharps:
Kinky Gazpacho: Life, Love and Spain

Lori L. Tharps is a freelance journalist, editor, author and teacher of magazine writing at Temple University. Tharps has written for Vibe, Entertainment Weekly, and Essence magazines and co-authored the award winning book, Hair Story: Untangling the Roots of Black Hair in America.

Kinky Gazpacho chronicles Lori's travels to Spain to discover her destiny. Travelogue, romance, mystery and racial coming of age, Tharps's memoir provides an entirely new perspective on Spain and its people.

2:30 Elizabeth Farmer
Jarvis: *Mount Airy

Liz Jarvis has been working with art and historical collections for 30 years and currently does freelance work on books, curates exhibits, and manages historical collections for a variety of institutions. Liz co-authored Chestnut Hill and authored Chestnut Hill Revisited.

Mount Airy contains 223 vintage photographs, many never before published, from family albums and historical archives. With this in-depth photographic history of the neighborhood's past, Mt. Airy residents can more wholly appreciate the vibrant community we have today.

3:45 Michael Kleiner: Beyond the Cold: An American's Warm Portrait of Norway

Mt. Airy resident Michael Kleiner operates Michael Kleiner Public Relations and Web Design and is the immediate past President of the Mt. Airy Business Association. In 2003, he received The Communicator Award of Excellence in Feature Writing.

Beyond the Cold traces Michael's affinity and passion for the people and culture of Norway, from his childhood to adulthood, discovering a country that is more than cold weather. He will share slides of his experiences and the beautiful country including his travels above the Arctic Circle.
